About This Game

An original and challenging survival arcade game about colors!

Your Chromacore is stranded in the depths of space and the only way to survive is to show to the universe the True Rainbow Power!

Combining speed, action, and emotion (and some rage), Chromatic will let you unleash your awesome gaming skills through a fantastic, but dangerous adventure in space-time.

To survive, your goal is to disintegrate the vicious hazards by selecting the opposite color of your enemies.

Use your Chromabeam to quickly wipe out all the dangers and be rewarded with huge combos!

Reach your eye tolerance limit and be proud (or not) of your score!

Fight against badass bosses that will push you to use your best strategies to win.

Will you have the courage to deal with that challenge where your unique allies are colors ?

Or double the fun and call a friend to help you with the badass Chroma-Missile Launcher !

Have fun with this colorful Indie game. It's made with nothing but love! <3

This is a pretty straightforward strategy game. You upgrade your base and built units to destroy the enemy. Units automatically move towards the enemy side and the only resource auto generates, so you mainly have time as the primary resource to worry about. There are 3 different layers, one is ground (tanks), then ships, and finally planes. The bombers can hit below them, anti-air guns shoot above, etc. It is simple to pick up and play and requires a bit of effort to win.

It didn't blow me away, but neither was it a bad game. I enjoyed it for the couple hours I played and I might try it again sometime. Definitely worth trying out, especially on discount.

6/10 Not bad, but doesn't have too much lasting appeal.. DON'T BUY IT. THATS AN ORDER!!!!. great game. Eco is probably one game of a kind. Do not buy this game thinking you will find a Minecraft like, it is not. The many aspects that I loved playing Eco are the different deep and interesting systems and how they interact with each other. Farming, cooking, tailoring, smelting, ... each skill tree rely on one another. The community aspect is probably my favorite, you can't survive without having good interactions with your neighbours, you'll have to make some friends, maybe some won't accept you and this is ok, but at the end of the day you'll have to collaborate or face a certain defeat.

Sure the game is still in development but I feel the initial goal set by StrangeLoop Games is reached and will always be. From patch to patch, i have never been disappointed.

Join us :) I don't understand why the people are complaining. Of course, the game has some bugs. All games has bugs. But this bugs are not critical. I can't say that the english is perfect. But anyway, the game look very cool. The graphics is stunning. Let's give it a chance. Yes, i recommend this game.. a game in a geometric world where you need to throw the ball higher and higher, accurately aim, calculate the trajectory and guess exactly where the ball will land. If the ball falls down, then you do not lose, but simply start over. Interestingly, the game design is made so that if you have passed a certain segment and fall down, then you do not fall to the beginning of the level, but rather refuse backwards, so that the fall is not felt so critical.. Unique, but stickfight is honestly better.

What a great game! The deceptively simple 4 color trail tracing mechanic is surprisingly deep when combined with the color powerups and weapons. On top of that the story adds some great flavor and originality to the mix. Three thumbs up!. It's been a few years since I've really enjoyed a PCM game, but this installment is probably my favorite since PCM13! I haven't had any major bug problems that wasn't quickly patched, and I feel the AI is more balanced than the last few years, both in the races, and in career mode.. So I've only played an hour so far, but I have yet to win a battle. I think I technically won a battle, but everyone in my party but me died and I died on the next battle obviously. I think? I purchased new equipment in town before going out. I have some quests from town, but I can't win a battle, so I am not having any luck completing a quest. Game sounds like a good idea and it may get there, but so far, not much luck enjoying the game.

Also, I've saved my game twice now on two different restarts and neither game will load. The first one just loaded a grey screen. The second save loaded a partial view of a town with grey all around it. I appeared partially buried in the ground. I was unable to even move on either save game. So I die every battle and now I can't even try again because my save games aren't working.. This game used to have almost game breaking bugs but sometime in the last couple years it got cleaned up and now it's a blast. I really enjoy the game and play it at least once a year
. Nice catch, it's an introduction to the genre for me and I really enjoyed it.

I particularly liked the music, for the price I am happy to have a music player to be able to listen to them whenever I want instead of a DLC :-)
